Catholic Identity

St. Therese Catholic School is different by design because of our unique approach to developing each child's spirituality and moral development. Every educational and recreational program at St. Therese is based on Christian principles and Catholic traditions. In partnership with dedicated parents and volunteers, our students are nurtured through a variety of school wide experiences.

- ✦ Daily religious education and prayer
- ✦ Active involvement and participation in weekly Mass
- ✦ Sacraments of Communion, Reconciliation, and Confirmation
- ✦ Monthly opportunities for periods of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
- ✦ Stations of the Cross during Lent
- ✦ May Crowning
- ✦ Daily rosary before school
- ✦ Pastor who is active in every classroom
- ✦ Monthly nursing home visits by classes for activities
- ✦ Emphasis on Faith, Catholic Tradition, and Service
- ✦ Instill the spirit of stewardship in all students
- ✦ All faiths are welcome

Academics for the Future

St. Therese follows the National Association for the Educators curriculum guide to prepare students for Kindergarten. Our goal is to build the foundation of skills that will help students be successful learners. Students are given instruction in the following academic areas:

- ✦ Students learn about Christian life through prayer, songs, and Bible stories.
- ✦ Values of love and respect for each other are emphasized.
- ✦ Reading readiness skills
- ✦ Number sense
- ✦ Fine arts
- ✦ Computer skills using interactive lab
- ✦ Social and emotional development skills (teaches age appropriate behaviors)

Small School Big Resources

St. Therese is located in the small community of Waynedale. Students benefit from the caring neighborly feel of a small town as well as the diversity and opportunity of a larger community. Within this nurturing atmosphere, students are given personal attention through a variety of resources offered at St. Therese School:

- ✦ Half-Day and Full-Day Pre-K Program
- ✦ Full-Day Kindergarten program
- ✦ Actively involved with "Everybody Reads"
- ✦ Adjacent to the Waynedale Branch of the Allen County Public Library
- ✦ Drama, musical and theatre events with Bishop Luers High School students
- ✦ Monthly K-8 family group activities
- ✦ Instructional aides in classrooms
- ✦ Children's "One Voice" Choir
- ✦ Brand new classroom
- ✦ New playground
- ✦ Take home book tote program
